

ROB WILSON MP & READING EAST CONSERVATIVES

INVITE YOU TO THE SPRING DINNER

WITH SPECIAL GUEST : RICHARD BENYON MP

MP for Newbury and Secretary of State for the Natural Environment and Fisheries

- Thursday 15 March 2012
- Penta Hotel, Oxford Road RG1 7RH
- £25 per person
- 7.30pm for dinner at 8pm

Please join us at one of Reading's best hotels to enjoy a delicious three course buffet meal and to meet Richard Benyon MP.

Your support of this event will raise funds to fight the local elections.

Following a career in the Army, which included active service, Richard qualified as a Chartered Surveyor. Before entering Parliament, he ran a business which included farming, forestry and the management of rural and urban housing. Richard has five sons who share his enjoyment of the countryside and sport.

Previously Leader of the Conservatives on Newbury District Council Richard was elected as MP in 2005, reducing the 22,000 Liberal Democrat majority to win it by a margin of 3,400 votes. In 2010 he increased his majority to 12,248. In July 2007, Richard was appointed as an Opposition Whip, and in January 2009 became a Shadow Minister for Environment, Food & Rural Affairs. In May 2010 Richard was appointed Minister for the Natural Environment and Fisheries as part of the Coalition Government.
