The Rt Hon Desmond Swayne has been MP for New Forest West since 1997. During the 2001-2005 Parliament, he served as Parliamentary Private Secretary to the Leader of the Opposition. In December 2005, he was appointed by the new Leader, David Cameron, to be his Parliamentary Private Secretary and continues in this role now that David Cameron is Prime Minister.

Desmond has been a serving Territorial Army officer since 1987 and served in Iraq from July to December 2003. During this service he contributed a popular audio diary to BBC Radio Four. To keep fit, he swims a quarter of a mile in the Serpentine daily throughout the year when Parliament is in session. He also runs through the New Forest from his home to Brockenhurst station to catch the train to London.

Previously, he has held shadow ministerial portfolios for Northern Ireland, Health & Defence and been a senior opposition whip. In the 1997-2001 Parliament, he was on the Social Security select committee. We can look forward to a most entertaining and informative speech.

Final date for bookings is 9 September—please apply as soon as possible!
